

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

1. Is IJPBR peer reviewed Journal?

Answer: Yes, IJPBR is a peer review international journal. IJPBR is having resourceful Editorial and review panel with vast experience & expertise in various multidisciplinary areas under the domain of pharmaceutical and biological science.

2. How much time does IJPBR take for review process and publication?

Answer: Rapid publication is hallmark feature of IJPBR. We can tell the status of article within 14 days provided that there is no delay from corresponding author in case of any correction and accepted manuscript will be publish in next upcoming issue.

3. Is the journal indexed?

Answer: Yes, the journal is indexed in leading science search engines, libraries, universities etc.

4. What sort of articles are published in IJPBR?

Answer: We accept research article, review article, case report and short communication. The journal welcome articles on all aspects of the pharmaceutical and biological sciences with strong emphasis on originality.

5. Does author need to provide their photograph?

Answer: No, Photo submission is not compulsory or mandatory.

6. How can I submit my article?

Answer: You can mail your article to the editor IJPBR.

editorijpbr@gmail.com

7. How much would it cost to publish in the journal?

Answer: There is no charge for the processing of papers but author(s) of each accepted paper is required to pay a web maintainace fee as mentioned below:

Indian authors/SAARC Countries	750 RS
International authors	40 $

Published papers appear electronically and are freely available from our website.

8. Can I be reviewer in IJPBR?

Answer: Yes, IJPBR welcomes scientists from academia, industry, government to be part of review panel. The scientists are requested to send their updated resume to the editor for approval.

9. What is research article access statistic and its use?

Answer: IJPBR enables you to know popularity of your article by displaying how many times your article was cited by help of Google scholar database.

10. How many authors are allowed in an article?

Answer: Not more than six authors should be included in one article.